

Fig. 5. Map of the Cross Lake Logging Company headquarters camp and log dump at the southern end of the Northern Mississippi Railroad (Sections 9 and 16, T137N-R27W) as they appeared in 1891. The wye was apparently added later. Much of this area is now subdivided and developed and the old railroad mainline is paralleled by Crow Wing County (Minnesota) State-Aid Highway Number 6.